

MAUDE NEIDING PARK SHELTER RULES

- A permit should be on your person when using the facility. A “Reserved” sign with your name will be placed on the shelter the morning of the reservation. Should you arrive and find someone using the shelter on your reserved day, please notify the pool manager to contact someone from the park department. The one holding the permit will have usage of the shelter.
- This permit is not transferable and the fee will not be refunded. Within limitations another date may be set providing the rescheduling is done before the actual date the shelter is scheduled to be used.
- The shelter shall be open for inspection by any authorized employee of the Park Board for the purpose of assuring the use of park property in compliance with law and order.
- In case this permit is issued to a group of persons under age, the adult receiving this permit on their behalf assumes all responsibility and personal liability for the breakage, destruction or removal of park property by any member of the group. Adult supervision of a children’s group is required at all times.
- The facility being reserved shall be left in the same condition exiting as upon the user’s arrival.
- Rules and regulations prohibit the drinking of intoxicating beverages in the park. Vehicles are prohibited to drive thru, drop off, or park at any of the shelters. Violators may be subject to arrest.
